

RULES AND QUALIFICATIONS

Aloha Attire is recommended. All contestants will be judged on brief introduction (name, current grade, and school attending), ukulele performances (strumming, rhythm and picking), and stage presence, off stage attitude, originality and keeping within the 6 minute time limit. No electrical effect pedals/distortion boxes will be allowed.

Please note that no outside food and drinks will be allowed on the premises. Complimentary lunch will be provided for contestants.

Each division will have a maximum of 5 contestants, which will be filled on a first come, first serve basis. There will be an alternate for each division who will be notified no less than one week prior to the event if their participation is needed. If selected as a contestant and you are unable to participate, please inform Keoki's Paradise by September 15th.
